Market commentary

With the exception of Europe, global equity market saw strong returns in the fourth quarter with Japan and Asia-Pacific seeing rises of more than 7%. Solid economic data and US tax reforms helped many markets but uncertainty in Europe over German elections, Brexit and tensions in Catalonia created a more cautious mood. Italy was one of the worst performing markets while the Oil and Gas sector saw some of the best returns after Brent crude prices rose 16% in the quarter. Over three years equity markets have moved up sharply with the UK being the weakest performer rising by 33% compared to 47% in Europe and 57% in the US. In the UK interest rates rose for the first time in 10 years and abroad, the US Federal Reserve raise interest rates for the third time in 2017. The European Central Bank confirmed that they would continue to taper their quantitative easing in 2018.
